GEORGE ROBERT GILL.

This Brilliant Lawyer Died at the Diener House This Morning.

George Robert Gill was born near Washington about fifty-five years ago, and died at 3 o'clock this morning at the Diener House in this city, after an illness of some ten days.

The son of wealthy parents, he had opportunities in life that fall to the lot of few, and in his early manhood these were embraced to the full.

He graduated with honors at Center College, subsequently winning a high degree at the Louisville Law School.

Entering the practice of his chosen profession as a partner of the Hon. Harrison Taylor in this city, for several years Mr. Gill was one of the most brilliant advocates at the Mason Bar, while his literary attainments and gentility of heart and manner won for him a wide circle of friends.

Subsequently he married a daughter of Mr. Taylor, who died a few years later, leaving a daughter who is today an ornament to her sex.

A man of noble impulses; generous to a fault; true to friends and consistent to foes;—let us remember these, and bury his imperfections beneath the robe that rest upon his bosom.

The funeral will occur from the Presbyterian Church at Washington at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, with services by the Rev. W. T. Spears, and the interment will be in the Cemetery at Washington.

THE WEATHER BUREAU has unfurled the black-centered flag, predicting heavy drafts on the old man's coxle for the next few days.

The cold wave is moving almost directly from the West, having invaded the care of the Honorable William Jennings Bryan's Nebraska on Saturday.

It is predicted that the snap will last several days, though the prophets do say it will be cold enough to freeze the legs off an iron post.

Since his first examination of the stomach of the late Andrew Danilton and his report, Dr. Dickie of Miami Medical College has made an exhaustive analysis and reports to Dr. Vaselet that the only trace of poison found was a small bit of arsenic that was contained in the embalming fluid used after the man's death.

If it is true, as telegraphed from Frankfort, that Mr. BUCHANAN has declared that, in no event, will the Jeffries-Rubin fight be allowed to take place in Kentucky, the Governor has taken a stand that will be approved by good people of all parties.

POLITICAL parties are essential to a republican form of government; but when partisanship becomes so intense as to throttle the business interests of a state, it is time to call a halt. Nine times out of ten the rebels who wage war on capital and enterprise have nothing at stake themselves; but, unfortunately, perhaps, their votes count just as much as do those of persons who have the welfare of the community at heart.

A CHAMPION.
 Higgins—So you think that fellow is a prize fighter. He doesn't look like one to me. He has no muscular development, and he is undersized and under weight.
 Higgins—I know; but you just ought to hear him talk!

HOTEL LIFE.
 Jackson—What time do you wake up in the morning usually?
 Jimson—Four o'clock.
 "Great snaker! Why so early?"
 "I heard at a hotel, and that's the hour the man in the next room goes to bed."

WHAT HE REALLY SAID.
 "And you say the idiot of a teacher told you that you had an extravagant degree of father?"
 "That's what he meant."
 "But what did he say?"
 "He said it was minimal folly to waste money on the education of such a chump as I am."

VERY DIFFERENT.
 Smith—You must have a wonderful memory to keep all those things in your head.
 Jones—Yes; never forget anything when it is once there (pointing to his forehead).
 Smith—Well, old man, how about the $20 I lent you some time ago?
 Jones—Ah, you see, that's different! I put that in my pocket.

NOT THAT KIND OF WAX.
 Chicago Times Herald.
 "Now," said the lawyer, "please be a little more explicit. You say these poor children when you saw them the second time were wax and ragged and—"
 "No, sir," the witness interrupted, "I didn't say they were wax. They were three of them, and all as thin and pale as ghosts, with hardly a whole dress between them."

WHY HE STOPPED IT.
 Indianapolis Journal.
 "The Business Manager—One of our lifelong subscribers has stopped the paper on account of your literary review."
 The Editor—A man sincerely sorry they are not good enough for him.
 Business Manager—Oh, they are too good. He says any paper that devotes so much study to a lot of golden nows, is not all that nothing but lies can't have the time to attend to politics properly.

THE WILKINS, JEWELER

HOW TO LIVE LONGER IN TEXAS.
 Visitor—To what you ascribe your extreme age?
 Octogenarian—Well, I never stole a horse, shot a neighbor's dog nor pulled a man's hair.

A REMARKABLE WOMAN.
 Philadelphia Record.
 "Hear—My wife is a remarkable woman. She wanted to get off the car today, and she reached right up pulled, the car stopped and stopped it."
 Joak—Hull lots of women do that.
 "But she pulled the right strap first shot, and didn't ring up a single fare!"

HER FAULTS.
 Boston Transcript.
 Edith—There is one thing in particular I like Mr. Tactin for. He is so frank, you know. He always tells me my faults without the least hesitation. That was the agreement I caused him to make.
 Bertha—And you mean to say that you do not get angry with him?
 Edith—Never.
 Bertha—Tell me some of the faults he has found in you.
 Edith—Oh, he hasn't found any yet. When I ask him to name them he always says that I am faultless.

The union claims that there should be no discrimination between members of the union and that the scale applies to the women members as well as to the men, while the master printers refuse to accept this interpretation. In all about 3,500 persons will be affected by the strike.

EMPRESS YIELDS.
 Owing to Pressure She Allows Emperor Kwang Su to Resume the Reins.

THE FORTIFIED PASSES GARRISONED.
 Count Von Waldersee is Very Much Dissatisfied With the Conduct of the French Troops.

Gen. Bullhead, French Commander, Has Just Told His Men He Is Acting Independent of the Commander-in-Chief.
 Shanghai, Feb. 11.—It is reported here that the emperor, dissatisfied with the conduct of the French troops, has yielded to foreign pressure, has allowed Emperor Kwang Su to resume the reins of government.

A dispatch from the French authorities states that the fortified passes beyond the territory held by the Chinese, are being garrisoned by the Chinese, and that boxers are re-entering Peking freely.

Peking, Feb. 11.—Count Von Waldersee is very much dissatisfied with the conduct of the French troops in the recent campaign, and also with their avowed intention, in spite of his protests against it, to organize an expedition to take possession of the province of Shan Si. He takes the ground that expedition, except for police purposes, or against bandits or robbers, should not be undertaken during peace negotiations.

Attacked on the Streets by Chinese.
 Gen. Bullhead, the French commander at Pao Ting Pa, says that he is acting in entire independence of Count Von Waldersee, and believes the emperor of China is in the imminent rebellion in the bud immediately. He asserts that he was attacked on three sides by a number of Chinese while out with a few men on Pao Ting Pa, and his theory is that the power of the foreigners should be shown, if possible, whenever an occasion arises.

A staff officer of Count Von Waldersee, who investigated the Pao Ting Pa affair, could find no evidence of such trouble as had been reported. On the contrary, he believes there are no signs of rebellion, but the opposite, although probably true, as elsewhere, considerable numbers of dangerous robbers infest the country districts.

Legation Defenses.
 At next Tuesday's meeting the foreign envoys will consider the plans submitted by the military committee for the legation defenses. A reply from the court is not expected until then at the earliest.

Li Hing Chang asserts that the emperor of China, Kwang Su, never had more harmonious relations than they have now and that the former quite agrees to the necessity of the legation defenses. He has telegraphed to the court his refusal to agree to sentences of execution "fraught with extreme danger and threatening the dynasty itself."

Chicago, Feb. 11.—The lecture of Mrs. Carrie Nation (John) banished from Kansas, advertised to be given at the Auditorium on Tuesday night, under the auspices of the Chicago Press Club, has been declared off. EXPRESS ROBBERY.
 The Safe, With Contents, Supposed to Contain $40,000, Taken From the Railway Depot.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 11.—Prompt and active work by the authorities at Market street, the arrest of men who are accused of having been implicated in the theft of a United States express safe, said to have contained $40,000.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train on which the safe was taken from St. Louis City arrived at Maunila at 1:05 p. m. Saturday night. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul train, which was late, and James Stuart, of St. Louis City, the express messenger, did not hurry in unloading the goods and packages from his car. The express safe, with other articles, was unloaded and placed on a truck on the depot platform, and then Stuart and the other baggage men went to the other end of the platform to get another truck loaded.

There Was Great Excitement.
 When Stuart returned he noticed that the articles on the truck were disarranged, and a glance showed that the iron box was gone.

There was great excitement and no time was lost in spreading the alarm. City Marshal Ferriss hastily assembled a posse and vigorous work was begun. Stuart, who was on the ground, and it did not take long to discover the tracks of two persons, who evidently had been carrying some heavy object, and they found the truck, as it stood upon the depot platform.

They carried the safe a distance of about 100 feet, and then hauled it into a wagon, which had been left there in waiting. The wagon was driven about a mile and a half out of town, and there the safe was forced open, and the contents abstracted. The men then abandoned the safe and went their way on a new track.

Strong Evidence Against the Men.
 It was not difficult to trace them, however, and Sunday morning three arrests were made. The men arrested are John Jackson, John Stewart and Charles Lyles. All are men who live at Maunila and are well known. Their reputations heretofore have not been bad. They stoutly protest their innocence, but the authorities believe the evidence against at least two of them will prove conclusive.

MUST CLOSE UP.
 The Jointists of Topeka, Kan., Given Until Next Friday to Quit Business.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 11.—Three thousand mail carriers of Topeka, Kansas meeting here Sunday, decided that the numerous joints of the city must close their places. If this is not done warning was given that a thousand men would move immediately to move on the joints and remove them by force. Sunday's action is the result of the crusade started by Mrs. Carrie Nation ten days ago by Mrs. Carrie Nation.

The ultimatum commanded the officers of the city and county to perform their duty regarding the closing of the joints. The officers were warned that they had wasted long enough.
